

Specify in advance, your preferences regarding life- sustaining procedures without incurring high legal fees

Due to recent technological advances in the field of medicine, it is important for you to declare your wishes regarding life-sustaining procedures. A living will makes it possible for you to specify exactly what your preferences are regarding the use of life support if you are ever in a terminal medical condition or vegetative state.

This kit answers questions about:

- Advance Health Care Directives
- Organ Donation
- Power of Attorney for Health Care
- Witness Requirements
- Laws in your state

Legal Forms Included:

- Living Will Forms and Advance Health Care Directives for all 50 States and the District of Columbia
- Revocation of Living Will
